VOLUME 1—NUMBER 134

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1897.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

PRESIDENT-ELECT

EXTRA SESSION AT FRANKFORT.

Cubans Capture a Spanish Pay Train With $600,000.

JACKSON AND WALLING MARCH 20.

Canton, O., Feb. 16.—President McKinley is suffering from a very severe attack of the grip from which he is confined to his bed. It has been necessary to refuse admission to all callers and he has seen no family and no friends.

EVERYTHING READY.

For The Hanging of Duestrow at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Feb. 16.—Preparations for the hanging of Millionaire Wife Murderer Duestrow this afternoon are complete. There is no belief that he will escape. The young double murderer from the fat he has so richly earned, though his lawyers have moved heaven and earth to compass it. No harder fight was ever made in behalf of a murderer than that put up by Duestrow's attorneys.

JACKSON AND WALLING.

March 20 is the Date Fixed for Their Execution.

Frankfort, Feb. 16.—Governor Bradley has fixed the date for the execution of Jackson and Walling, the condemned murderers of Pearl Bryan, at March 20. The death warrant has been issued and will be sent forward immediately. The last hope of the condemned men is gone and they will undoubtedly die on the date fixed.

Schmidt and Foster Hanged. St. Louis, Feb. 16.—Peter Schmidt and Sam Foster, the former white and the latter colored, were hanged at Clayton this morning for the murder, something over a year ago, of the young and promising artist, Bertram Atwater, of Chicago. Atwater had engaged Schmidt to guide him to the residence of a friend, a member of St. Louis. Schmidt formed a conspiracy to rob him and had him into a trap. He shot him and was shot dead by Foster.

Grant Rejoicing at Middleboro. Middleboro, Ky., Feb. 16.—There is great rejoicing here on account of the report which comes from England that Edward Johnson, of the Middleboro Town Company, will soon come over and start up the idle industries hereabouts. This means much to the people of Middleboro and the surrounding country.

Extra Session Again. Frankfort, Feb. 16.—Rumor is again asserting that there will be an extra session of the Kentucky Legislature called by Gov. Bradley.

THE POWERS ACT.

They Disembark Marines at Ports of Crete.

Prince George Deliant Occupies Small Islands.

Canea, Crete, Feb. 16.—The Powers have taken action by debarking marines at Canea and other ports of Crete, and notwithstanding the defiant attitude of Prince George, who has occupied the small islands off the coast and declares he will obey the orders of the King, it is now believed an amicable settlement will be reached.

CAPTURED A PAY TRAIN.

$600,000 in Silver Taken by the Insurgents.

Havana, Feb. 15.—A pay train on the railroad near Candelaria, province of Pinar del Rio, was wrecked by the Cubans Friday and over $600,000 in silver secured. They killed ten of the guards and captured four Spanish guerrillas belonging to San Martin's band. The latter were instantly put to the macabre by the infuriated Cubans, as they attribute most of the cruel murders in that section to this band.

A detachment from Gen. Lacer's army now operating in this province had a pitched battle with a band of guerrillas under Maj. Nisanco and a portion of Havana volunteers under Col. Sanchez. The Cubans attacked a blockhouse ten miles west of this

SKULL FRACTURED

Jim Kirksey Will Die, His Doctor Says.

WAS STRUCK BY GEO. RUSHING.

The Two Men Had a Fight Over the Drinks Near Stiles.

RUSHING HAS DISAPPEARED.

Jim Kirksey was perhaps fatally injured in a fight near J. J. Smith's store, a few miles from Epworth this county, yesterday with George Rushing.

The two men were not on good terms, it is understood, and filling up on "tanglefoot" Kirksey sallied forth to "find a bully." He made many boasts and finally someone sent him to Smith's store near Clark's river, telling him he could find him a bully there.

Rushing was pointed out to him as one of the most noted bullies in the county, and he inquired of him if that was what he called himself.

Rushing simply replied that he didn't want to fight a drunken man, and suggested that they shake the box in Smith's store for the drinks. He was from Kirksey, who with an oath announced that he would not pay. Rushing said he was going to drink whether his unworthy friend did or not, and proceeded to do so. Kirksey drew a knife, and by the time the fight came to a head had two men to assist him.

Rushing ran to a wagon out near the road, and seizing the standard from it dealt Kirksey a terrible blow on the head, which fractured his skull. He asked the other two men if they still wanted to fight, and they dropped their hands and concluded that they didn't.

Rushing escaped and the doctor said there was no possible chance for Kirksey. Both are young men, unmarried, and Kirksey is considered dangerous, especially when drinking.

VANDYKE CAUGHT.

Charged With Stealing $50 From Pete Pogora.

Captured in Anderson, Ind., Today.—Confesses.

Marshal Collins received a telegram this morning from Chief of Police Amos Coburn, of Anderson, Ind., stating that Todd Vandyke had been arrested there, had confessed to the charge against him and consented to return without a requisition.

Vandyke is wanted for stealing $50 from Pete Pogora, of Mechanicsburg, last week. The money was placed in a drawer, and Vandyke was boarding at the house at the time. He was suspected of stealing the money, and it was found where he had spent a sum. A warrant was issued against him and the authorities at Anderson notified to watch him.

Vandyke is quite well known in Mechanicsburg and has a brother, Roy Vandyke, serving a term in the penitentiary for stealing a watch from Mr. Tom Hanna. He will be brought back at once.

PRESIDENT SIMON.

The Base Ball League Man Arrives.

Will Settle Everything Incident to the Local Club.

Mr. G. B. Simon, of Evansville, President of the Central Base Ball League, of which Paducah is a member, arrived at noon to make final arrangements for the opening of the season.

President Simon stated to a Star reporter at the Palmer House: "I am here to complete the organization and expect when I leave to be able to say that everything is ready for a successful season."

"We are very sanguine of success. We shall practice economy, but it shall be judicious. We expect to make a success of the league, and Nashville says she alone can support the league. An average of 200 people twice a week would suffice to keep the league well up, and we are confident of getting this much."

"Members of the local club have propositions submitted by both street car companies, and will probably some time this afternoon decide on the location of Paducah's diamond."

FUN IN COURT.

Doctors and Lawyers Fail to Pay License.

LAWYER WALKS TO FLORENCE.

A Mother Claims Her Witness Fee in a Case Against Her Son.

TOO PROMISCUOUS WITH BRICKS.

There were a dozen or more doctors and lawyers arraigned before Judge Sanders in the police court this morning on a charge of practicing their profession without a license.

Agreat deal of fun was had at the expense of the runaway unfortunate. One young lawyer was credited with walking all the way to his home near Florence Station last night after the warrant was issued against him to procure the necessary funds for paying his license.

Judge Sanders said that a young man with so much enterprise ought to be let off, so the warrant was dismissed.

A young doctor with a name that resembles flowing water sent the Judge a brief missive as follows: "Judge Sanders, wish you'd turn me loose. I've got this paper for a good excuse." The paper was his newly paid license.

The warrants will of course be dismissed, as they are only intended as "scare."

A remarkable instance of maternal affection was exhibited in the police court this morning. Alex. and George, two men charged with fighting. It appears that Alex. is so much a watchful eye over his brother, who is addicted to drink, he found the latter in the low lot Saturday night drunk, and in attempting to get him in the house had to give him a thrashing. Their mother separated them, and George, who was badly whipped, was fined $3. While his brother was acquitted. After court the mother claimed her attendance as a witness against her son. "Bent anything I ever came across in my career as a judge," said Judge Sanders after court.

Willie Johnson, colored, was fined $5 for throwing a brick through Jeff Carter's place, at Sixth and Adams. He said he threw at "Hobo Tom," a strange negro who snatched his hat and slapped him.
